DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

FOR PRESIDENT,
HORACE GREELEY,
OF NEW YORK.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,
B. GRATZ BROWN,
OF MISSOURI.

FOR CONGRESS,
M. DURHAM,
OF BOYLE.

DEMOCRATIC ELECTIONS
FOR THE CONVENTION,
GEO. R. HODGE, of Campbell,
JAS. A. McROBBERTS, of Christian,
DURHAM, etc.

••••• District—G. A. KING, of McCracken,
T. T. DODD, of Marion,
J. S. BREWER, of Letcher,
J. M. McLEATHEN, of Letcher,
J. W. COOPER, of Johnson,
W. C. BROOKINS, of Perry,
W. C. DURHAM, of Perry,
D. E. LITTLE, of Madison,
A. L. COOPER, of Perry,
H. L. STANKE, of Perry.

With the distinct understanding that if elected I shall be the President of not a party of the whole people, I accept your nomination in the confidence that you will support me in my efforts to make the country safe from all who would do us harm.

Unquestionably, General Grant deserves unquestionable high credit and endorsement, either a nomination or for Vice-President.

The time will come, and it will not be long, when the opportunity too, when the world will see that you are no less Democratic than yourself, the course you have taken, and that I can no less a Republican because I accept your nomination.

DID GREELEY SAY THAT?

This question has been put to us on divers occasions when a good Democrat would read something in the Radical papers, purporting to have been written by Greeley and published in the Tribune years ago, wherein he gave expression to some opinion not in accord with the principles of Southern people. The following is a fair sample of the stuff alluded to, and the Radical papers spread it before the world continually:

"When the rebellious traitors are overthrown, we will be called like Jesus before the angry world, must not be returned to peaceful and contented homes. They now find poverty at their firesides and see privation in the aching eyes of mothers and in the rage of children."—Herald.

Now that this was published in the Tribune, while Mr. Greeley was one of its editors, we do not deny, but that Mr. Greeley wrote it so positively, for such a sentiment never had room in his great, good heart. To have given it utterance would have been to belie his present and all past life and his history. Could Greeley have baited Mr. Davis with such a sentiment nestling in his heart? Could he have lived the humble and almost blameless life he has lived, and then utter such a beastly sentiment as that? You ask then, "if Greeley did not write it, who did?" You must know that the New York Tribune has a dozen or more editors, any one of whom could have written it. You ask again, and say, "Was not Mr. Greeley apprised of it before it was published, and could he not have refused to permit its publication to his constituents?" To which we reply no. That great daily paper could not be looked over by any one man, before contents were put in type, and Mr. Greeley or any other editor of such a paper, would have a huge task before him were he to undertake to supervise and correct every little squib that appears in its columns, before the paper went to press. We have not deemed it necessary to give a denial to these silly "extracts" from the Tribune," believing, as we did, that no man of ordinary common sense could think Mr. Greeley capable of such utterances. But there are a few who seem to be silly enough to think that they are true, and sentence in Mr. Greeley's paper, was written by him and are the sentiments of the man himself.

The Crazy Democrats.

When we look over the men, and their actions in the matter of selecting candidates for President and Vice President, on the Bourbon ticket, we are lost in wonder and amazement to find that they have gone off at a tangent and put forth an independent ticket to be voted for. At first, we looked upon the recent convention at Louisville, of the straight-outs, as a huge joke, or burlesque. We could not bring our minds to bear, seriously, upon the subject, and we really thought they were trying to alarm the Liberal-Democratic parties. Now, however, when we see that poor old O'Connor, and his no less silly dupe, Aldus, have actually, and seemingly in dead earnest, accepted the nomination of that crazy convention of crazy politicians, our amazement assumes a type of very serious wonder.

What are their hopes? What their desires? Can it be that any one of them hopes to carry a single precinct, in a single State of the Union? If so, then their hopes are destined to be fatally and woefully blasted. Friends of reform, let not these promises of a defunct organization woo and win you from the path of rectitude; from that cause which has all promising in it, and nothing of despoil. Come to the rescue now, or forever let it be said that you, in the day of need and promised victory, turned your backs upon the only road to a lasting peace.

T. P. Hill, Esq.

This gentleman, who is well qualified by his oratory to do valiant service for Democracy, has been silent to a great extent, during the present very important Presidential and Congressional canvass. Why does he not let the people hear from him on frequent occasions? Friends of Reform, we must organize our party better. Where are your Greenleaf clubs at Stanford, and at Clark Orchard? Did two meetings alone suffice to quiet your energies? Other counties are up and doing. Why should Lincoln county be less active? Let us have speaking all over the county, and thus stir up our friends.

Still Better.

The news from Georgia at first was quite good enough for all practical purposes, but like wine in new bottles it improved with age, and, as the days passed on, we learned that instead of a majority of 30,000 for the Conservative ticket, we have one approaching near 60,000.

Every true Democrat, whether he intends to vote for Greeley or not, should vote for our Congressional nominees, M. J. Durham.

STATE NEWS.

The Louisville Exposition closes tomorrow.

Garrison Circuit court will commence next Monday.

Thomas Brunner, of Cynthiana, has a child with two natural thumbs on one hand.

Lancaster will sell her present jail building on the 22nd, preparatory to the erection of a new jail.

Judge Bullock and Judge Nessitt, the commissioners appointed to revise the statutes, have resumed their labor.

William DeSpain, of Greene county, the father of nine children, has eloped with Miss M. J. Scott, his sister-in-law.

An exchange says: Cynthiana is evidently getting back towards barbarism, as coons are tried in her streets at night.

Dunville has just completed a workhouse, and is ready to receive disturbances of the peace who are unable to pay their fines.

Reverend Mr. Sharp, formerly of Norfolk, Va., will take charge of the Episcopal Church, in Elizabethtown, next month.

How Nat Gaither, of Mercer, has accepted the call made upon him to become a candidate for State Senator, vice Col. Chenoweth resigned.

Mr. Wm. Harris, one of the oldest citizens of Eminence, fell in a fit of apoplexy in his wagon last Friday, and never spoke afterward.

John Chrnan, an old citizen of Madison county and a soldier of the war of 1812, died at his residence on Silver creek, on the 23d ult., in the eighty-first year of his age.

Mr. William Bosker, of Campbell county, and Miss Harriet Cook, of Greene, aged respectively sixty-one and eighty-seven years, were married a few days ago in the latter county.

Alais county will vote in November, on the proposition to give to the Cincinnati Southern railroad, if located through the county, the right of way, and $50,000 in bonds, as a bonus.

Garrard county has granted the Cincinnati Southern railroad the right of way throughout. The Cincinnati Enquirer says a good natured rivalry exists in all the counties to take precedence in granting the rights of way.

A full and complete weather signal station has been established at the Agricultural and Mechanical college at Ashland, near Lexington, and Mr. W. S. Garrison has been detailed by the Government to superintend it.

Mr. John Doty, of Garrard county, was crossing the railroad near Lancaster on Sunday last, when the freight train ran upon him. Killing his horse and tearing his buggy to pieces. He made a narrow escape by jumping out of his buggy.

Thomas Dillon, the murderer of Mr. Wick's child in Paris, was taken from Bourbon county on Friday, and conveyed to the jail at Lexington for safe keeping.

James Outfit, who was also engaged in the shooting, and who escaped from Paris, has been arrested, and is now held in Cincinnati, awaiting the requisition of the Governor of Kentucky.—Lexington Press.

The enlargement of the penitentiary yard, as provided by the last Legislature, is going on briskly, and in a very short time the wall, inclosing the area taken in, will be completed. It is a very substantial structure, and an improvement on the old style of prison walls, apparently defying all escape. Work has also begun on the gate-house at the entrance, the arches of which are to be raised higher, and the offices to be reconstructed—a long needed improvement.

The Harrodsburg People of the 4th says: "Last Tuesday, whilst William Terhune, the pastor of the sect known as the 'Soul Sleepers,' was engaged in hauling shingles to cover the new church which the congregation are erecting near Nevada, in Mercer county, the horses ran and the reins broke. Mr. Terhune leaped to the ground to secure the reins, when his feet caught in them, he was thrown to the ground, and the wheels passed over his head, killing him almost instantly. The deceased leaves a wife and many friends to mourn his loss."

What are their hopes? What their desires? Can it be that any one of them hopes to carry a single precinct, in a single State of the Union? If so, then their hopes are destined to be fatally and woefully blasted. Friends of reform, let not these promises of a defunct organization woo and win you from the path of rectitude; from that cause which has all promising in it, and nothing of despoil. Come to the rescue now, or forever let it be said that you, in the day of need and promised victory, turned your backs upon the only road to a lasting peace.

WEAK KNEED DEMOCRATS.

We have no use for weak knead Democrats. Those who say in view of our recent defeat in Pennsylvania that "we had as well give up the battle for the right, as against the cohorts of Radicalism."

No brave and true Democrat will say. Why should we give it up? If we fail to succeed in any private matter of business, are we then warranted in sitting down and folding our hands while we weep over our misfortune? By no means.

The valiant warrior beaten back from the storm he made upon the trenches of treason; the soldier, driven from his breast works at the point of the bayonet, by the overwhelming numbers, and by superior appliances, will not sneak away in the darkness of night, and refuse to renew the struggle for liberty.

No! But, fired with true zeal for the cause he has espoused, will rally from the defeat and assail his enemy in new quarters, having determined to fight on until he is utterly and hopelessly vanquished.

Our cause is a glorious one, friends of Government reform! It should be held too sacred by every lover of his country, for him, in the hour of greatest defeat, to back down from the principles he holds dear to his heart. A better and brighter day is coming.

As a party, we are too young, too lukewarm. We should rise from this state, and determine to do, each for himself, whatever he can, to rescue our government from the hands of its betrayers.

Defeated.

The following bold lines appeared in the Courier-Journal of yesterday: Strong probability that Hendricks has carried Indiana by two thousand majority. The State Legislature reported Democratic, and Morton left out in the cold. Pennsylvania gone Radical by thirty thousand majority. The Democrats gain two Congressmen in Ohio, but the State lost about ten thousand.

The Louisville Commercial contained the following: Indiana very doubtful. Both parties claim a victory. Defeat of Dan. Voorhees. Republican majority in the Legislature. Hartranft elected by over 30,000. Ohio Liberals concede a Republican triumph by 10,000. Twenty Republican and seven Liberal Congressmen from Pennsylvania.

A Father Killed by his Son.

On the 9th inst., Washington Curtis, of Madison county, was shot and instantly killed by his son Thomas Curtis.

The impression prevails that the killing was entirely justifiable, and necessary to save the life of the son and other members of the family.—Central Kentucky News.

Good Tempers.

The Grand Lodge of I. O. O. F., of Kentucky, met at Frankfort on the 7th inst. One hundred and fifty lodges were represented by one hundred and seventy-five delegates, besides a large number of visiting members.

Political Speaking.

Don't forget the appointment of R. C. Warren, Esq., of this place, and A. M. Sloope, Esq., of Paris, to speak at the courthouse next Monday.

The "soldier" who said at Pittsburgh "we do not propose to shake hands, but to shake our fists across the bloody chasm; Andersonville and Libby are fresh in our remembrances," was one James May, of Massachusetts, who was Sutler for the Eighth Infantry of that State. And so it is out West. Ninety-nine out of every hundred Radicals in Kentucky, who are just now writing or talking like that Massachusetts Sutler, were either at home during the war, resigned early, or were in bomb-proof places where they never smelled powder.—Frankfort Courier.

To give Judge Durham a small majority in this district, would be about equivalent to a defeat. Friends, will you be content with less than 2,000 majority for our standard bearer? If not, then wake up and go to work while you have time to do it. Do not wait until it is too late, and then say "I had no idea of so small a vote."

JUDGE DURHAM is speaking day and night in the lower counties. He can't be everywhere at the same time. Let us, Democrats, take the task upon ourselves to help him all we can, by thoroughly organizing our forces for the battle in November.

The race for Congress in this district at least, is exciting too little interest. It will not do to have a meager majority, but we must have a rousing majority. This we can have by doing our level best.

The Herald, Tribune, and World advocate the election of William H. Dunn, of the banking firm of Dunn, Sherman & Co., as Mayor of New York.

Job Work, Croquet sets received at W. H. Anderson's drug store.

To Our Subscribers.

Our subscribers are respectfully notified that we employ no collectors. All sums due us must be paid to one of the proprietors of this Journal, or in our absence, to our foreman, if you desire proper credits therefor.

Please Renew.

Those of our subscribers who find a cross mark after their names are notified that their time expires with that number, and are earnestly requested to renew. We thank many of our friends for prompt renewals; and, so far gone have refused to continue our paper. We will in all cases stop your paper when the time for which you subscribed expires. Therefore, please authorize us to continue if you desire so aid in supporting this institution. Our terms are friendly in advance.

Religious.

Rev. A. H. Rash will preach at the Baptist church at this place on Sunday night next.

Rev. G. C. Overstreet will preach at the M. E. church on next Sunday morning and evening.

Rev. G. D. Barnes will preach at 11 o'clock, A. M. and at 4 P. M. in the upper room of the courthouse on next Lord's day.

A protracted meeting, conducted by Elder John J. Rogers, of the Christian church, is in progress at Richmond, Ky.

Elder J. W. Hardin, of Winchester, held a protracted meeting at Union Church, Madison county, Ky., last week, which resulted in twenty-eight additional converts to the fold of Christ.

The protracted meeting of the Christian church at Athens, closed last Sunday; twenty-five additional having been made to the church under the efficient preaching of Elder Kelly.

The protracted meeting which had been in progress at Crab Orchard, conducted by Rev. A. D. Bush, closed on Monday night last. The good seed sown by this able and devout minister will be harvested at the proper season. There were no additions to the church, but the earnest, thoughtful attention given to the preacher during the meetings may result in the conversion of many souls.

Personal.

Our friend Jas. R. Green, the popular hotel keeper, for many years at the National Hotel, Louisville, is now at Alexander's Hotel, corner Eighth and Main streets, where he will be pleased to have his many friends call and see him.

W. H. McCurdy, agent of the Water-town Fire Insurance Company, of Watertown, New York, visits our town in the interest of its company this week. Mr. McCurdy is an efficient fire insurance man and represents a good company.

We regret to announce the departure of our clever young friend John Bogle from our midst. John has been residing in our town only a few months, and was universally popular with old and young. He is a thorough linguist, a gentleman of unexceptionable manners, and will prove an honor to any community in which he may cast his lot.

Matrimonial.

On the 2d inst., at the residence of the bride's father, in Wayne county, Kentucky, by F. S. Shear, Mr. L. J. Scoville to Miss Sallie Jones. They passed through our city on the 4th inst., accompanied by Jas. Phillips and wife, of Monticello, to visit the cities of Louisville and Cincinnati. May their happiness be long.

At the residence of the bride's mother, in this city on Thursday evening the 10th, by Rev. A. D. Rash, Thomas D. Newland, to Miss Eliza Menifee.

Our young friends about town, inform us that the affair at R. Cobb's, Esq., on the occasion of the marriage of Miss Kate, on Thursday the 1st inst., was the most pleasant of the season. To Mrs. Cobb we return thanks for a large share of good things sent us. Nothing is so nothing to the vanity of newspaper men, as to be remembered on such occasions.

Medical Association.

The Central Kentucky Medical Association will hold its regular meeting at Stanford, Wednesday, October 10th, on which occasion Dr. Steele Bailey will open the discussion on "The Therapeutic effects of Mercury," and Dr. W. F. McClellan, F. S. A., report on the "Progress of Surgery, Anatomy and Surgical Pathology." Works of case, and valuable papers on interesting medical subjects will be presented by different members of the Association.

These meetings are gradually growing in importance and usefulness, elevating a noble profession and working a great good for the community at large. A large attendance is expected.

Our Sick.

As we go to press this morning we learn that Elder J. R. Warren, who has been languishing ill for some weeks with bronchitis, is more better, and hopes of life speedily recovery are entertained by his many friends.

Mrs. Thomas Hinde has been suffering with a severe spell of fever for the past two days. She is reported no better this morning.

Mrs. Sims, Hinde has been quite ill with fever for the past two weeks. We are glad to announce that she is much better this morning.

Death of Miss Lizzie Withers.

The death of this charming and beautiful young lady, has cast a gloom over our entire community. Wherever she was known, she was loved and respected. In the May morning of life she has been struck down. Truly, in the midst of life we are in death. Let us mourn over those that have no hope, for her life was that of the Christian, although fallen, she will rise again to newness of life, and live eternally angel to the better land.

Notes.

All persons indebted to the undersigned for threshing are notified that their accounts are now ready, and are respectfully reminded that each work is cash on demand.

JOHN H. BRIGHT.

NEW supply of Croquet sets received at W. H. Anderson's drug store.

LOCAL BREVIETIES.

The Female College has about seventy-five pupils.

Hon. Aaron Hardin, we are glad to hear, is rapidly convalescing.

Col. R. M. Bradley was in town yesterday, on important professional business.

Sandifer was asked the other day by a green one, if he charged any more for taking a picture with his capon.

County Court and Court of Claims meet Monday, and Circuit Courts meets the following Monday.

The prisoners in jail complain a "good deal" of the frosty weather, and are clamoring for a little fire. They might have it.

The Male Seminary is being put in good repair by Bob Wearen, the builder. New glass and new shutters will make it all right.

The tall of the farmer, as well known to the rag, is beyond early dawn. There will be one very large "crop" of hog this year.

Mr. N. R. Tevis advertises his farm for sale in another column. It is an excellent small farm, and has two very fine orchards on it.

A fine two-horse wagon has just been completed at the shop of Wm. Daugherty. It is one of the best wagons we have seen in our town.

Large numbers of the people from the country, come to town every day—looking over the stocks of goods on sale by our enterprising merchants.

The Continental Hotel, with its handsome exterior, is an ornament to our town. Mr. Carson, the proprietor, deserves credit for this enterprise.

Mr. C. A. Winchester, of Louisville, has been quite ill, at a hotel in this place, since Friday last, but we are glad to announce that he is now convalescent.

The present Fall is the most backward we have known for many years. The leaves are as green as they were in July, except a few which have been raised and purchased in our country.

CURRIER'S FARM.

Our Circuit Court closed on Thursday last, most of the civil business being continued. After the adjourning order was signed, one of our attorneys was asked the question "what luck?" He replied that he could make the same return made by one of our former attorneys, "Out of date and nothing done."

IMPROVEMENTS.

T. Z. Morrow has erected a very neat law office on Main street near his residence. Tom is a real "door" keeper of home that we fear will seldom visit the "wings" when his new office is completed. The wings' blocks of J. W. Hall and C. Wait's heels will be ready for occupancy in a few weeks.

R. N. QUINTON

was found upon inquisition yesterday to be a lunatic, and was placed in jail until the Judge could hear from one of the asylum or place in his custody of a committee. It is a shame to place a poor unfortunate lunatic in a jail unfit for a criminal. The past has demonstrated that the mind of a lunatic becomes worse and more raving every day he remains there, because at fixed intervals they are always sensible of the fact that they are confined in a loathsome, miserable jail and it makes them mad. Why cannot our legislature make suitable provision for these unfortunate beings?

J. F. MEDEA

has recently moved his confectionery and eating saloon to the corner opposite the Ingram house, which has been refitted and repaired. Frank, alias "Morrison," understands his business, and keeps a good assortment on hands.

REAL ESTATE SOLD.

Mr. Dunn has sold the remainder of his farm, 45 acres, to Winter Wright at $50 per acre.

He also purchased Wright's stallion for $500.

STOCK ITEM.

We hear of a sale of 34 head of two-year-old cattle by Suyell Givens to J. M. Elmer at 41 cents per pound. Weight 1,120 pounds.

MARRIED.

Elder W. L. Williams was seen on the street at an unusual hour this morning, wedged his way to the domicil of Mr. McElroy where we understand he adjusted the matrimonial nose to the necks of Mr. Crom and Miss Mary dredge, both of Danville, and they were launched into matrimony. May their table never lack for Crumbles.

DAIRY.

Your correspondent has just been interested as to the fate of McCormick's wildcats. He can only say they are both dead, but, if there is an elixir for beasts, they deserve a position there. Those who witnessed their last conflict here unite in testifying that they were brave and magnanimous, but a sense of degradation killed the cats. They died of broken hearts. Yours in address. F.

NAMES OF OUR STREETS.

Every incorporated town should have its streets either lettered or named. This is not as a matter of convenience, but as a necessity. Some of the streets of Stanford bear several different names; and more of them, we believe, have a definite, fixed name, except Main and Lancaster streets. Our trustees did, at one time, pass a law to have these properly and appropriately named, but did not, so far as we know, settle upon the matter.

For instance, all will agree that Main being force so called. Next "Lancaster" street, from Saint Asaph's branch, Northward—"Somerset," from Main, Southward. Then, from the branch Northward to the colored Baptist church, let us call it "Centre" street. The next street Eastward, from the branch Northward,—call it "Legan" in honor of Ben Legan, and the next Eastward from the branch North, call it "Boone." The street from the branch North, to the railroad depot, call it "Church." The streets above Main, from Church Eastward to Boone, call it "Upper." The next street from Church to Boone, call it "High." The next above from Church to Boone, call it "Depot," etc., and so on, until all the streets are duly named.

FOR pure Cider Vinegar, of the best quality, go to W. H. Anderson's.

Around Hustonville.

If its true history could be known and written, there cluster around no town in Kentucky more historical interests than around this one. There, or near that point, Carpenter's Station was located, away back in the years of the first settlements of our State. There, a few bold pioneers gathered in a rude fort, to beat off the red fox, who was jealous of the Indians made by the "face paint" upon his hunting-ground. Who so bold as they, at the present time? Little is known of the hardships they endured, in order that we might, with ease and comfort, sit down in peace and quiet to enjoy the fruits of their labor. Near this village, at the present day, many objects of interest can be pointed out to those of the present generation who may wish to learn of them. Only recently a mound was found which contained many curious specimens of the red man's rude manners; and the tomahawk, the war hatchet, the arrow-head, the bow & arrow, which had been buried with the fallen "warrior," were dug up, revealing to us some faint glimpse of the rude customs of that strange race of people. At Hustonville and in its vicinity, many of our forefathers settled, because it was a "goody land;" a land "flowing with milk and honey." The soil, the water in springs and brooks, all combined to render the section finely fitted for the abode of civilized man. And it has retained its excellence as a fertile country, even unto present day. Around this village some of our best and most fruitful farms are to be found now. The farmers are thirty and intelligent. The people, in town and vicinity, are moral, religious and enterprising; and if we are asked by a friend, or any one else, to point out an exceptionally fortunate locality to live in as a farmer, or where all the material benefits of life could be enjoyed, we should unhesitatingly point them to the "West End."

Read This.

All persons who intend going to Louisville should not fail to visit the great clothing, tailoring and furnishing goods store of J. L. Deppen, situated on the North East Corner of Fourth and Market streets. That your wants will be attended to, should go there, you may infer from the fact that Mr. Deppen employs seven first class salesmen, and three cutters of acknowledged ability, besides his book keeper, cashier and errand boys. James A. Smith late with J. Winter is connected with the house and would be pleased to see to the welfare of his many friends of Stanford and vicinity. 34th

FRESH oysters served in any manner at all hours at Carson & Dods.

LARGE Potatoes.

Rough Phillips, of this country, showed us the other day, a "pair" of Brazilian sweet potatoes from one hill, which weighed twelve and a half pounds. The largest of them weighed eight and a half pounds; and was the finest yam we ever saw. Our climate and soil are finely adapted to the cultivation of this fine vegetable, and if we only knew how to preserve it through the winter, it would be a great addition to our stock of winter vegetables. Unfortunately, however, it is hard to keep, and chickens usually find it without difficulty. This, the Indians call "Ku Khuzum." Pitiful we have so little of the kind.

MEDICAL WATER.

It seems that our county, and especially the vicinity of Hall's Creek, is destined to become famous for medical water. We are informed that several parties here recently struck good cold water, having good medicinal qualities. The last was at Jefferson Hill's found at a depth of nearly one foot.

FRESH confecterries, tobacco, cigars, etc., go to Carson & Dods.

Umbrella Lot.

At the fruit show last Saturday week, some took my umbrella from the courthouse.

It has an oak colored handle, with a crook at the end, on which the initials of my name are faintly cut. Please return it to my office.

INTERIOR JOURNAL.

I am glad to see that the subscription list to this valuable paper continues to increase. It is now a good advertising medium for our citizens, having a good circulation in all parts of the county. Messrs. Hilton & Campbell are devoting considerable space to the interests of Pulaski, publishing anything and everything that will prove interesting and beneficial to it. They having farms or town property for sale or rent, cattle, horses, hogs for sale or cheap, would do well to have their advertisements inserted and send their orders to the INTERIOR JOURNAL; and we still urge them to do so.

County Court and Court of Claims meet Monday, and Circuit Courts meets the following Monday.

The prisoners in jail complain a "good deal" of the frosty weather, and are clamoring for a little fire. They might have it.

The Male Seminary is being put in good repair by Bob Wearen, the builder. New glass and new shutters will make it all right.
